

JAP SITUATION AT
VANCOUVER WORSEParliament Told Citizens May
Resort to Arms to Protect Themselves.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 22.—Strong language was used by members for Vancouver in the British Columbia Parliament yesterday discussing the proposed legislation aiming to restrict Japanese immigration.

Mr. MacGillivray declared that the situation was growing desperate at Vancouver and if the aggression continued it might be possible that a resort to arms might occur for self preservation. He said the Japanese of Vancouver were thoroughly armed and if there were not taken to disarm them Vancouver citizens would arm themselves.

Dr. MacGillivray, of Vancouver, suggested that $20,000.00 be used to provide armed cruisers which would assist to defend the Pacific seaboard of Canada, and urgent steps should be taken whether the Japanese were excluded or not.

Tetrazzini as Gilda;
Next Week's Operas.

TETRAZZINI will sing Gilda in "Rigoletto" twice next week at the Metropolitan Opera-House—on Wednesday evening and the Saturday matinee. "Il Trovatore," with Selman-Hofek, on Monday; "Louise," with Mary Garden, on Friday, and "The Tales of Hoffman," with Renaud, at popular prices, on Saturday evening, complete the programme. Renaud will sing at next Sunday's concert.

At the Metropolitan Opera-House next week the programme is: "Don Giovanni," Monday; "Manon Lescaut," Wednesday; "Tannhauser," for the first time this season, Thursday; "Faust," Friday; "Barber of Seville," Saturday matinee, and "Madama Butterfly," Saturday night.

Both houses announce Rosini's "Subat Mater" for next Sunday evening concert.

Miss Rosina Morris made her New York debut yesterday afternoon in a piano recital at Mendelssohn Hall. Her powers are immature, but she created a pleasant impression. Politeness, daintiness and poetic sympathy, rather than force or brilliant technique, marked her performance. The programme included Chopin's Mazurka in D and Etude in G flat, Beethoven's Sonata in C major (op. 10), the Saint-Saens-Bethoven "Chorus of Dervises" and Debussy's "Reverie."

Schubert's "Turkish March" was given as one of the encores.

No. 61 West End Avenue, Jan. 19, 1908.

To the Editor of The Evening World:

In your paper of Jan. 16 you say that the first Jenny Lind ticket sold in 1851 was purchased for $885.

The first ticket was sold to Mr. John Genin, a prominent hat and fur dealer on Broadway at that time. Mr. Genin was an intimate friend of Mr. Barnum, and the money was furnished by Mr. Barnum, as an advertisement. This, of course, the public did not know.

Belin, an intimate friend of both Mr. G. and Mrs. B., it was told to me as a good joke.

Mrs. L. E. LAUDEN.

Announcement is made that the spring tour of the Courted Metropolitan Opera Company will be limited to three and a half weeks, and that Boston, Washington, Baltimore, Chicago and Pittsburgh will be the only cities visited. The season will close here on April 4, but there will be extra performances of "The Nibelungen Ring" during the week beginning April 12. The first out of town performance will take place in Boston on April 5.

CAN'T WED IN "SAIL LOFT."

Officers of the Brooklyn Navy-Yard Compel Boatwain to Recall Invitations.

Because the "sail loft" in building No. 23 of the Brooklyn Navy-Yard has been the scene of numerous important social events, officers of the yard have compelled Boatwain J. J. Rochester, of the sailing-ship Hancock, to recall three hundred invitations sent out to friends to attend his wedding there to-morrow night to Miss Delphia Aubrey. The wedding will take place, but not at the Navy Yard.

Rochester's friends arranged for the Navy Yard wedding without seeing Rear-Admiral Goodrich. Meanwhile there were complaints. It was urged the "sail loft," as building No. 23 is called, shouldn't be used for the wedding of a boatwain.

A Splendid Prospect.

(From the Washington Star.)

"Do you see any great future for Panama?"

"Certainly. Look at the great excursion resort it has already become."

NEW YORK PEOPLE
TRY HOME RECIPELocal Druggists Say Thousands of People Are Taking Home-Made Mixture.

There is a simple home recipe now being made known in all the larger cities through the newspapers. It is intended to check the many cases of rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble which have made so many cripples and invalids and weakenings of some of our brightest and strongest people.

The druggists here have been notified to supply themselves with the ingredients, and the sufferer will have no trouble to obtain them. The prescription is as follows: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle. The dose is one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Recent experiments, even in severe hospital cases, prove this simple mixture the remedy for Rheumatism because of its positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It compels these most vital organs to filter from the blood and system the waste impurities and uric acid, which are the cause of rheumatism. It cleanses the kidneys, strengthens them and removes quickly such symptoms as backache, blood disorders, bladder weakness, frequent urination, painful, scalding and discolored urine. It acts as a powerful stimulant to the entire kidney and bladder structure, puts new life into them and invigorates the entire tract.

All the ingredients, states a well-known local druggist, are of vegetable extraction, making it a safe and harmless prescription at any time.

Those who suffer and are accustomed to purchase a bottle of patent medicine should not let a little inconvenience interfere with making this up.

For Women

On Sale To-Morrow at $14.75

NOT a coat in the lot that would not sell in the regular way for $25—many have sold for more. Those rich, dark, lustrous, handsome coats that look so much like Persian Lamb, Broadtail or the real Caracul. Don't believe there is a coat style this season so popular as Caracul. An importer who had a large amount of this cloth on hand sold us all he had at less than half price. We had them made up according to a late Paris model—full 3/4 length—double-breasted, semi-fitting back, rolling collar and cuffs of self-material; a shapely and dressy coat, smart model; beautifully lined with grey or black satin. There are only 100 of them, so you must come to-morrow if you want one or these service-giving coats. We do not think Caracul Cloth Coats of this character have ever before been priced so low in all New York. Sorry we haven't more—at $14.75.
